The Head Teacher writes:

Welcome back to the last half-term of this school year!

We are in for a busy few weeks ahead with many events and activities planned before we wave goodbye to our Year 6 pupils and everyone else prepares to move to a new class, including many of the staff who are changing rooms and year groups in September. Lots of changes...

In our whole school assembly this week, we gave each of the children a challenge sheet of Random Acts of Kindness (RAKs). This followed on from a story Mrs McHugh told of Gandhi giving away his shoes to a stranger; the message being we can all do little things to make a difference. None of us are too young or indeed too old to bring about change. The children are working hard to find ways of completing their challenges, one of which is to tidy their rooms at home! I'll be talking to them all next week to see which things they've found challenging and whether they feel they can keep up with some of the others. Perhaps you would also like to discuss this with them at home.

SCHOOL JOURNEY 2018 SWANAGE

We all had a memorable, funny and enjoyable time

On Monday we arrived at school, excited for the 5 days to come

Thank you to Mrs Sowter, Mrs Stock and Mr Hunter for giving us such a great ...

The coach journey was long but the seats were comfy

We were delighted to see peacocks, red squirrels and deer

We enjoyed our first dinner of delicious pasta bake, with a side of sweetcorn

There were challenges to complete – working in teams in archery to hit every colour on the bullseye

We travelled to Brownsea Island by chain-link ferry and a small boat

MESSY SUMMER

On Tuesday, Pre Prep along with Year 3 and some of Years 4 & 5 enjoyed 'Messy Church' to celebrate Pentecost and Ascension. Activities consisted of making winged doves, learning to sing a new song with actions, decorating a plant pot to plant sunflower seeds in and recreating the solar system on the field. As you can see from the photos, a fun time was enjoyed by all. We then tucked into a picnic lunch together outside.
