OVER TO YEAR 6 ... MEMORIES OF SCHOOL JOURNEY 2019

Treasure
it forever

It was fantastic!

I did miss my family but I loved it

Breathtaking
what was there and the kindness of the people

I think I bonded with people in class I wouldn't normally

Will never forget the time we had

I loved overcoming
my fears

It is such an amazing memory
which will always remain in my heart

It was the best trip in my life!

Lighting fires
was so good

Incredible – the teachers and instructors were helpful

I loved the holiday in Wales
even though at night it was freezing

We are delighted to announce that Louis (1) has been awarded a Highly Commended Certificate in the ISA Handwriting Competition 2019.

CONGRATULATIONS!

ISA LONDON SOUTH ATHLETICS

This week St David's hosted the Independent Schools' London South Athletics meet at Norman Park. A total of 21 schools attended what turned out to be a great day of competition and sportsmanship, despite the inclement weather!

Our teams did really well, with our Year 5 and Year 6 boys both coming 3rd overall.

The following pupils were awarded medals:

Silver

Teddy (6) Shot Put Renata (5) Ball throw
Noah (5) Long Jump

Bronze

Arthur (6) High Jump
Arthur (6) 80m Sprint
Noah (5) 75m Sprint

Other notable performances were:

Eliz and Tilly, both 4th in High Jump, Harrison 4th in Ball throw, Stefan 5th in High Jump, Neriah 6th in Ball throw, Oliver 8th in Ball throw, Klara 8th in Long Jump, George 9th at 600m and Lana 10th in Shot Put

Well done to the whole team of staff and pupils who braved a long, cold and wet day. Tremendous effort!
